Learn over lunch with Fastener Basics Four-Part Webinar Series

GLENDALE, CA (January 29, 2024) – Fastener Training
Institute (FTI) is excited to announce a four-part webinar series for its Fastener Basics course.

Students can learn over lunch and complete the training across four Thursdays this spring - March 28, April 25, May 30 and June 27. Each webinar will be held from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Pacific Time and will include time for audience Q & A.

FTI's Fastener Basics course provides extensive fastener parts knowledge to those new to the fastener industry and to those looking to better understand fastener products.

This webinar series will be presented by industry expert, Carmen Vertullo. Completion of the course serves as a prerequisite to attend FTI's Fastener Training Week for anyone with less than two years of fastener experience.

"In the complicated world of fasteners including varying sizes, finishes and materials, this class provides the jump start needed to be successful. Our Fastener Basics class is excellent training for new fastener professionals," shared Jo Morris, Marketing Director for Fastener Training Institute.

Learn more and register at www.fastenertraining.org. Each webinar is $125 per person or $225 for up to 10 attendees. The total for all four webinars is $500 or $900, respectively. Multiple attendee registrations include video replay for one week following the live webinars.

Support from Würth Industry North America, FTI's Sustaining Sponsor, is key to the successful presentation of Fastener Basics classes as well as all training offerings from FTI.
